

Our creative writing competition

Ágnes Jassó (coordinatrice ungherese) a READ in Europe Erasmus+ project

6 maggio Facebook

Dear students!

Our creative writing competition has arrived to an end. Thank you all for working together and sharing lots of great pieces of writing with each other.

The results and some statistics:

There were a total of 140 students involved in this activity 9

You have submitted about 425 pieces of writing!

There are 4 students who were patient and persistent enough to complete ALL the 10 activities:

Aurora Galimi , Katijana Bilandžić, Martina Madari, Tamara Tudor

The maximum points that could have been collected is 160 points. There are only a few points between the first three places, so it was really tight!

The results on international level:

Galimi, Aurora (Italy) I. 154 points

Bilandžić, Katijana (Croatia) II. 152 points

Madari, Martina (Hungary) III. 147 points

Tudor, Tamara (Croatia) IV. 132 points

Tudor, Zorina (Croatia) V. 128 points

Milinovic, Arika (Croatia) VI. 114 points

National results:

The three best Croatian writers:

Bilandžić, Katijana 152 points, Tudor, Tamara 132 points, Tudor, Zorina 128 points

The three best Hungarian writers:

Madari martina: 147 p, Virlics Zsófia 71 p., Pap Kincső 65p.

The three best Italian writers:

Galimi, Aurora 154 points, Timodei, Martina 77p., Paturzo, Lorenzo 71p.

The three best Lithuanian writers:

Pauraigaitė, Adelė 85 p., Budrys, Martynas 83p., Vainoraitė, Milda 83p.

The three best Spanish writers:

Perez, Rocio 54p., Ulti-mate Raul 50 p., Gallego-Casilda Sánchez, Maria Belén 50

The three best Turkish writers:

Zeynep Çekirdekçi 68p., Ekinci, Gizem Sude 65p., Polat, Sanem Sakine 62 p.

Thanks a lot for you all!!!

