

ROME

«Roma caput mundi»

The entire historical city is UNESCO site

Romulus and Remus

- Romulus and Remus were Rhea Silvia's and god Mars's twins. The legend says that they were brought up by a she-wolf. Romulus was the first King of Rome.

Physical characteristics

- Rome is situated along a river, Tevere (Tiber), and on the seven hills.

The Colosseum

- The Colosseum, or Flavian amphitheater, was inaugurated by the emperor Titus. Hundred different games were performed there, the most famous including gladiatorial combats and wild animal fights.

Vatican City

- Vatican City State is an ecclesiastical sacerdotal-monarchical state, ruled by the Pope, in the heart of Rome. It includes St. Peter Basilica, the largest church in the world.

Rome's monuments

- Venice Plaza;

- Sant 'Angelo castel;

- The Trevi Fountain;

- Spanish steps;

- Piazza Navona;

- Piazza del Popolo.

END...

